

Open Call for Volunteer Board Members - Richmond Art Gallery Association (RAGA)

The Richmond Art Gallery Association (RAGA for short) is a non-profit, registered charitable society dedicated to supporting the Richmond Art Gallery.

Board members provide support to RAGA and the gallery in its mission to promote dialogue among diverse communities and challenging ideas and issues of today as expressed through local, national and international contemporary art.

As a vital part of the contemporary art network in British Columbia and Canada, RAGA plays a dynamic role in fostering the growth of visual art in Richmond. We provide the Richmond community and others in the Lower Mainland with opportunities to learn about contemporary art, as well as engage in art-making activities through various programs for adults, families, and children.

The Richmond Art Gallery is fortunate to have a talented Curatorial team and a skilled Director on staff who spearhead the artistic and curatorial vision for the gallery. The Richmond Art Gallery Association does not act as the governing Board of the Richmond Art Gallery, nor does it have a curatorial role in the gallery's exhibition program.

Functionally speaking, RAGA works closely with the Richmond Art Gallery, which is owned and operated by the City of Richmond. The RAGA Board supports the Gallery by being ambassadors for arts and culture in the Richmond Community and imagining, implementing and delivering sensational fundraising programs.

We are currently seeking enthusiastic individuals to join our Board of Directors as volunteer members. By becoming a Board member, you will actively contribute to the advancement of the arts in our community and help shape the future of the Richmond Art Gallery.
